RIGHT REV. A. F. W. INGRAM.

The United States will have a distinguished clerical visitor early in the fall. The lord bishop of London, the Right Rev. A. F. W. Ingram, is coming over to bring the magnificent Bible which King Edward has presented to the old Bruton parish church at Williamsburg, Va. Bishop Ingram is one of the hardest workers in London, his vast diocese keeping him thoroughly busy. For many years prior to his elevation to the bishopric in 1901 he devoted his time and efforts to work among the poor of London. He was one of the two founders of Oxford House, the famous social settlement. The bishop is quite democratic.

BORAH'S TRIAL IS NOW ON AT BOISE

Government Counsel Announce that the Affair Is Only a Misdemeanor

BOISE, Idaho, September 25.—The task of impeaching the jury to try Senator Borah was resumed today in the district court. The government accepting only men who declare that the senator's exalted position would not deter them in dealing equally and justly as between him and any other man in the state.

The government attorney, after consulting authorities, withdrew the challenge against jurors who said they have some opinion as to existence of conspiracy, but were not satisfied of Borah's connection with it.

The jury was completed and impaneled. The opening address to the jury on behalf of the United States was made at the afternoon session by M. C. Burch of Detroit, special representative of the attorney general of the United States. He dwelt at length on the details of the charges set forth in the indictments, especially that of conspiracy to defraud the government out of timber lands by inducing persons to make false entry, and asserted that the prosecution was without malice, but would be carried out without fear or favor to the end that no guilty man should escape.

Mr. Burch declared that former Governor Frank Steunenberg was one of the leading members of the conspiracy and had openly stated that he was interested in obtaining timber lands by causing others to enter the claims for his benefit. He induced others to go with him, on that subject he approached the present governor of Idaho, Frank B. Gooding. There could be no reflection on Governor Gooding, Mr. Burch quickly added, because he turned his back on the scheme and declined to go into it.

Government counsel announced today that he contended that Borah's alleged offense is only a misdemeanor.

LIFE IN PENITENTIARY FOR KILLING HIS WIFE

Attempted Suicide After Murder, but Failed and Now Must Go to Prison at Yuma

To serve the rest of his natural life in the prison at Yuma, Manuel Flores was in Phoenix today in the custody of Sheriff Francis of Cocino county, says the Arizona Democrat.

In cold blood Flores shot his wife to death and then attempted to finish the job by shooting himself. He inflicted only a superficial wound, recovering sufficiently in a short time to be tried for his life.

Flores had no defense to offer except that he shot his better half because she had been unfaithful to him. He said that it had been his intention to put himself out of the world after doing away with his recreant better half.

Sheriff Francis states that conditions in Cocino county were never more prosperous at this time of the year. The shepherds are all doing well and other industries are thriving.

Raccoon Hair Charm
Over in Memphis there is a man who says he went all through the Civil war and figured in some of the hottest battles, but never received a scratch," said Clarence F. Hendley of Meridian, Miss., at Hartman's. "The old soldier explains his lack by telling of a ball of raccoon hair worn around his neck during the battle. He said an old negro woman told him that by wearing a ball of raccoon hair around his neck on a copper wire he would never get hurt or have a spell of sickness. He told me he tried the experiment just at the beginning of the war, and that it proved successful. He says he has never been ill one day nor has never met with any kind of accident, and he gives all the credit to the raccoon's hair."—Nashville Tennessean.

A woman likes to be flattered so she will know it's true.
